

set6

December 11, 2023

```
[ ]: import numpy as np
import matplotlib.pyplot as plt
import seaborn as sns sns.set()
```

```
[ ]: def ex(x):
    return np.exp(-x)
```

```
[ ]: X = np.linspace(0,100, 10000)
plt.plot(X, ex(X))
plt.title("P(x)")
plt.show()
```

```
[ ]: def montecarlo(density, N, a = 0, b = 100):
    """generate random number for specific density

    Args:
        density (func): density function N (int): number of points
        a (int, optional): low number for x. Defaults to 0.
        b (int, optional): high number for x. Defaults to 100.

    Returns:
        _type_: _description_
    """
    Y = []
    while len(Y) < N:
        x = np.random.uniform(a, b) y = np.random.rand()
        if y < density(x) :
            Y.append(y)
    return Y
```

```
[ ]: Y = montecarlo(ex, 1000)
```

```
[ ]: plt.hist(Y, density=True, bins=50)
plt.show()
```

